

SIGHTLINES

INSIGHTS FOR GREATER SAFETY

Second Quarter 2024

Welcome to Sightlines, your source for leadership insights in infrastructure safety and traffic control.

WHAT'S TRENDING: GENERATIVE AI

In a recent McKinsey Global Survey three-quarters of respondents agreed that generative AI will lead to significant or disruptive change in their industries. Sixty-five percent are already using it. Here's how it's impacting companies in infrastructure.

INSIGHTS: AI ADOPTION IN UTILITIES

Top utilities are investing in generative artificial intelligence (AI) to optimize resource planning, grid management and cost reduction.

At least

16% of top 25 utilities

report integrating generative AI into operations.

SOURCE: Deloitte

THOUGHT LEADERSHIP: TECH-DRIVEN SAFETY

In the AWP Newsroom

Jarrod Wachter, chief operating officer, explains how AWP Safety utilizes data and technology to ensure maximum safety and efficiency in infrastructure worksites.

Featured In "Work Truck"

Mark Ludewig, vice president of safety, delves into the critical importance of customized training and advancements in vehicle technology in mitigating accidents.

PARTNER WITH US

AWP Safety protects people who build and operate North America's utility, broadband and transportation infrastructure. Industry leaders rely on AWP Safety innovations to enhance safety, reduce risk and improve operational efficiency. Learn more at awpsafety.com.

